Dear Submarine Team Members,

Congratulations on your success at the 10th International Submarine Races. Your hard work throughout the year and skillful performance at the competition has definitely paid off.

The determination and success you demonstrated shows the excellence of our country's future engineers. This achievement is an incredible source of pride for all of us living within the South Florida community.

I hope that you all enjoy this accomplishment and once again, I wish you my sincerest congratulations.

Very truly yours,

Ron Klein
